

Manager

Are you looking to grow as a leader and accelerate your career as a risk professional, whilst adding more variety to your day-to-day work?

Amstelveen is growing! We're looking for enthusiastic and passionate risk professionals to join our management team.

What are we looking for?

You thrive on being a member of a high performing team. Central to your work is complex problem solving and the ability to think critically. Underpinning your passion for risk, you are organised and able to juggle competing priorities and deliver on deadlines, whilst maintaining a high level of quality output and attention to detail. You enjoy coaching and mentoring others, you are proactive and you bring a positive attitude to the work you do.

As a Manager you have 4+ years of work experience, including:

- Consulting and/or team management experience.
- Experience with coaching and mentoring team members.
- Proven track record of successful engagements in risk management, internal audit, major change or transformation projects.
- A deep understanding of governance, risk and controls. and the ability to think strategically.
- Ability to work in fast-paced client environments.
- Excellent communication, stakeholder engagement, presentation, and workshop facilitation skills.
- Advanced report writing skills with the ability to deliver clear messages (both written and verbally) to executive and senior stakeholders.

Why join our team?

We empower professional achievements and are committed to the development of each team member. This role will provide you with:

- Plentiful opportunities to learn and grow with training tailored to your career ambitions.
- The ability to expand and develop a team with an emphasis on coaching and mentoring team members; we understand that only together can we grow faster and stronger.
- Strong networking opportunities to increase your professional profile whilst working with major public and private organisations.
- Opportunities to build client relationships by leading the scoping, planning, execution and delivery of a variety of assurance and advisory engagements and projects.
- The opportunity to contribute to/leading thought leadership and representing Amstelveen at industry events.
- The ability to help shape our culture by being part of a respectful and fun work environment.

We host regular social events and enable an open dialogue within the team. We are also strong believers in fairness and doing the right thing. These beliefs are reflected in our profit share plan which all team members are automatically part of and benefit from.

APPLY NOW

If this exciting opportunity to join our growing team interests you, please submit your application including a cover letter and your CV. The cover letter should tell us why you are interested in joining Amstelveen and why you would be a good fit for our team. Applications without a cover letter will not be reviewed.

Currently, we are only able to consider applicants who have full working rights in Australia and do not require sponsorship now or in future.
